Opening doors to the world of opera

The Opera Foundation for young Australians Awards & Scholarships have provided the springboard for launching the successful international careers of many Australian opera singers over the past 50 years. Tonight we are delighted to announce our 54th New York winner.

The Foundation is a non-profit organisation dedicated to the development and appreciation of the operatic art form in Australia through the delivery of Awards and Scholarships to young Australian opera singers and operatic artists for study, training and performance at leading international institutions.
